DanceATL Presents

A.M. Collaborative Info Session
What is A.M. Collaborative

DanceATL's A.M. Collaborative offers Atlanta-based makers a community of partnerships and group feedback. The group of participating artists will support and sustain each other’s processes and artistic inquiries, each deepening their own creative practice. With large group meetings and one-on-one partnerships, A.M. provides accountability, fellowship, and a space in which to explore and interrogate new ideas and methods of making work.

With this program, we strive to nurture collaboration and connections within our diverse Atlanta dance and arts community.
